The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, October 25. 1705.

From the Harlem and Amſterdam Courants.

Hildeſheim, October 16.

THE 6th. Inſtant Prince Chriſtian Auguſtus Adminiſtrator of Holſtein-Gottorp, was acknowledg'd at Lubeck by that part of the Chapter which is in his Intereſt, for their Bſhop, and inſtall'd accordingly. The 8th. he went to Eutin and had Homage done him there with great Ceremony. The 9th. at 5 in the Morning he arriv'd at Gottorp, where the Princeſs his Wife was brought to Bed at 7 a Clock of a Daughter, who was criſten'd at Night and nam'd Hedwiga Sophia Auguſta. Thoſe of the Canons of Lubeck that elected Prince Charles of Denmark for their Biſhop, have written to the King of Denmark and alſo to the Emperor (before whom the Diſpute for the Coadjutorſhip to the late Biſhop, and conſequently for the Succeſſion to the Biſhoprick on his Deceaſe, had been ſome time depending,) to acquaint them with the Proceedings of the other Part of the Chapter in acknowledging and inſtalling the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein-Gottorp. In their Letter to the Emperor, they repreſent the great Affront offer'd him by thoſe other Cannons taking upon them to decide a Controverſy that they knew lay before him, and this in Favour of a Prince who had by Force of Arms taken Poſſeſſion of the thing conteſted. On the other ſide the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein-Gottorp, has diſpatch'd Monſieur Reventlau as his Ambaſſador, to Vienna, to juſtify what has paſs'd to the Emperor, and ſollicit his Imperial Majeſty to confirm him in the ſaid Biſhoprick.

From the Harlem Courant, dated October 29.

Sleſwick, October 22. Monſieur Reventlau, who is ſent by the Prince Adminiſtrator to the Court of Vienna, is order'd to go likewiſe to the Court of Hanover, to ſollicit that Elector to aſſiſt him againſt the Danes in Maintenance of the Treaty of Travendael. Captain Ranſchendorf being diſpatch'd by the Adminiſtrator to the King of Sweden, has likewiſe Inſtructions ('tis preſum'd) to ask Succours of his Swediſh Majeſty, the Adminiſtrator not having force ſufficient to maintain himſelf in the Poſſeſſion he is in of the Territory belonging to the Biſhoprick of Lubeck.

From the Harlem Conrant, dated October 24.

Copenhagen, October 17. This Court has acknowledg'd Prince Charles for Biſhop of Lubeck; and 3 Regiments in Holſtein are actually nomiuated to march and diſpoſſeſs the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein-Gottorp of the Palace and Territory of Eutin. All Orders about this Affair are ſign'd by Prince Charles as Biſhop. The 19th. 3 Battallions are to embark here, to be tranſported to Holſtein.

Copenhagen, October 20. To Day 6 Ships, having on board 3 Battallions, ſet ſail from hence with a fair Wind for Holſtein.

From the Amſterdam Courant.

Hildeſheim, October 23. They write from Copenhagen, that the King of Denmark deſign'd to leave that Place the 21ſt. Inſtant, to go to Altena whither the Queen Dowager of Denmark is come back from Aix la Chappelle; Prince William is to accompany his Majeſty, to take Leave of the Queen Dowager, and proceed to Holland, whence he deſign's to travel to Italy. The Swediſh Troops that are in Pomerania and the Territory of Bremen, have put themſelves upon the March, for Holſtein 'tis ſuppos'd; and 'tis likely the Elector of Hanover will joyn his Troops with them in Favour of the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein-Gottorp, it being reported his Electoral Highneſs has declar'd he holds himſelf oblig'd (as he is Guarantee of the Treaty of Travendael) ſo to do, eſpecially ſeeing in that Trtaty the King of Denmark engag'd not to intermeddle in the Affair of the Succeſſion to the Biſhoprich of Lubeck: 'Tis hop'd ſome Expedient will be found to accomodate amicably, or at leaſt ſuſpend, the Conteſt for that Succeſſion. The Count of Eck, the Emperor's Miniſter at Hamburg, having written a Letter to the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein-Gottorp, without giving him the Title of Biſhop of Lubeck in the Superſcription, the Adminiſtrator ſent it back to him unopen'd.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated October 31.

Hildeſheim, October 27. The Difference that is riſen between the Houſes of Hanover and Wolfenbuttel, upon the Deceaſe of the Duke of Zell, is in a Way to be accomodated quietly, but is not brought to a full Concluſion yet. The Son of Monſieur Kaventlau who is gone to the Court of Vienna with a Commiſſion from the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein-Gottorp, came the 23d. Inſtant to Hanover, and the next Day had Audience of the Elector. Brigadier How, Envoy of England, who arriv'd at Court the 25th, had Audience of his Electoral Highneſs and of the Electoreſs Dowager Sophia Yeſterday. General Bannier, who was returning from Aix la Chappelle, has receiv'd Order from the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein-Gottorp to repair to the Hague, to manage his Affairs with the States General.

Hague, October 30, The time drawing very near for the Amry to ſeparate, the final ſettling of the Winter-Quarters has been for 2 or 3 Days paſt under Deliberation. 'Tis certain thoſe Quarters will be extended from the Schelde to Bonn on the Rhine, and upon part of the Moſelle; but the Prince of Baden has caus'd Inſtances to be made here for their being extended ſtill farther, that in caſe of need his Troops and ours may joyn. 'Tis ſuppos'd the Duke of Marlborough will in his Way to Vienna regulate this Matter with his Highneſs. Monſieur d' Auverquerque, to ſet an Example to the other General Officers of the Army of the States, has offer'd to continue this Winter on the Frontiers, and to take up his Reſident either at Liege or Maeſtricht. This Offer of their Field-Marſhal is extremely well taken by the States; and it will be conſider'd whether to oblige their Generals to ſtay on the Frontier or not. Monſieur d' Auverquerque is ſaid to have made this Offer, upon Intelligence he has that all the Enemy's General Officers are to paſs the Winter in their Frontier Places. The 19th. Inſtant the King of Pruſſia's Miniſter ſignify'd to the chief Miniſter of this State and to the Envoy of England, by Order from his Maſter, 'That his Pruſſian Majeſty deſign'd to obſerve as much as poſſible, a Neutrality, in caſe any Troubles break out in the North of Germany, either upon account of the Death of the Duke of Zell, or of the Death of the Biſhop of Lubeck: But ſeeing the Troubles of Poland have caus'd ſe-veral Poles to retire out of their own Country into his Territories and there to commit Disorders, he thought fit to remind England and Holland of the Guaranty promis'd in the Treaty which the Duke of Marlborough and afterwards the States General made with him, for the 8000 Men he sent the beginning of this Year to serve in Italy. The 21st. the Envoy of Denmark presented a Letter from the King his Master to the States General, which is said to be to this Effect, 'That the Administrator of Gottorp having upon the Death of the Bishop of Lubeck by violent means taken Possession of that Bishoprick, while the Coadjutorship was in Contest before the Emperor, he had dispatch'd an Express to his Imperial Majesty to acquaint him as he had done to the Queen of England, and did by this Letter to the States, that such a number of his Troops as was judg'd sufficient to dispossess the Administrator was actually order'd to march; That however those Troops should forbear acting, provided within a Month that Bishoprick be put in Sequestration into the Hands of his Imperial Majesty, till the Title of the Claimants should be decided. That if any other Potentate should intermeddle in this Affair and attack him, for as for his part he would attack no Body, and he should be oblig'd to augment his Forces, he should be constrain'd to recall those he has in the Service of the Allies. That therefore it concern'd them to take it Measures to prevent that Inconvenience. The Minister of Denmark says the King his Master does not engage in this Affair as King of Denmark, the Treaty of Travendael binding him to the contrary, but as a private Person to assist a Brother and the Canons of Lubeck that are at variance with the House of Gottorp. The 23d the Minister of the Elector of Hanover declar'd to the States by Order from his Master, 'That if Denmark or any other Prince whatever, offer'd to disturb the Administrator of Gottorp in his Possession of the Bishoprick of Lubeck, (that Possession being taken by virtue of the Treaty of Travendael of which the Elector is a Guarantee with other Potentates,) or to raise Troubles in the Circle of lower Saxony, the said Elector his Master would joyn his Troops with those of the King of Sweden. The Ministers of Sweden and Holstein have dispers'd a Paper written some Months ago and intitled Reflections upon the Coadjutorship of Lubeck, which shews upon what Grounds the Administrator of Gottorp now claims the Succession to that Bishoprick.

veral

It may not be unnecessary at this time, to give some Account of the Bishoprick of Lubeck.

The Bishoprick of Lubeck is a small District of the Province of Wagria in Holstein: It is divided into two Parts, one lying along the Trava, and the other round the Lake of Eutin. The chief Towns in it are Travemond and Eutin, the latter of which is the Bishop's Place of Residence. From the Year 1587 all the Bishops have been of the House of Holstein Gottorp, tho' the the Chapter which resides at Lubeck have a Power of electing: The Bishop and Canons are Lutherans: There is no other Bishop of that Profession in Germany, that enjoys Diocesan Rights and exercises Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.

Weymouth, October 22. Yesterday a Ship for transport of Prisoners arriv'd from St. Malo, she came thence in Company with 2 more last Friday; the others were forc'd to the Westward: They brought in all about 800 Prisoners. The Master reports the News of the Loss of Barcelona had extremely mortified the French.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, this present Thursday, being the 25th of October, will be presented a Comedy, call'd, The Squire of Alsatia, Mr. Pinkethman performing his own part of Sir William Belfon: With several Entertainments of Singing by Mr. Ramondon and the Boy, and Dancing by Mrs. Cross and others.

This Play is sold by Richard Wellington at the Dolphin and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, where you may have most Novels.

An Entertainment by Mr. CLINC of BARNET, who imitates the Flute, Double Curtell, the Organ with 3 Voices, the Horn, Huntsman and Pack of Hunds, the German Doctor, the Old Woman, the Drunken Man, the Bells: All Instruments are perform'd by his natural Voice. To be seen this present Evening, at 7 a Clock at the Rose Tavern in the Poultry. Price 1 s.

Lost the 24th Instant, between Lincolns-Inn and the Chequer-Office, a Roll of Parchment tied up and Sealed with 4 Seals, the Name John Turner and others upon it: Whoever gives notice at the Sign of the Horns in Bell-yard, called the Broom House, shall have 5 s. Reward, if they bring it in a Weeks time.

Just publish'd,

The Second Edition of the Survey of the Earth in its general Vileness and Debauch; with some new Projects how to mend or cobble it; shewing in short, but more exactly than any Pope, General Council, General Assemblies, Synods, Sermons, or Lectures ever yet have done; which is, 1st. The true Christian Religion, 2d. The true Church of Christ, and 3d. The true Church of England, that Man might be happy here and hereafter; enfeebling also the none such Toot called Excommunication, and the Writ de Excommunicato Capiendo, as commonly us'd. By Edmund Hickeringill, Rector of all Saints in Colchester. Price 1 s. Sold by B. Bragg in Ave-Mary-Lane.

Just Publish'd,

The Character of a Low-Church-Man, drawn in an Answer to the true Character of a Church-Man: Shewing the false Pretences to that Name. Humbly offer'd to all Electors of Parliament and Convocation. The 2d Edition. Price 6 d.

On Saturday last was publish'd,

A fair Shell but a rotten Kernel: Or, a bitter Nut for a factious Monkey. Price 1 s. Sold by Ben. Bragge in Ave-Mary-Lane.

Secret Memoirs of Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester, Prime Minister and Favourite of Queen Elizabeth. Containing an Instructive Account of his Ambition, Designs, Intrigues, Excessive Power, his Ingrossing the Queen, with the dangerous Consequences of that Practice, &c. Written during his Life, and now published from an old Manuscript never Printed. To which is added a Character of the Duke.

This Book was written by Robert Parsons the Jesuite, during the Life of the Earl of Leicester, and dispers'd in M. S. (about the Year 1590) to promote the Designs of Pope Sixtus V. and of the King of Spain who were preparing to Invade England. The Title of this Book at first was, Leicester's Common Wealth; there are several Editions of it in Print, (in 4to and 8vo.) This was accounted the most false, venemous, and treasonable Libel against Queen Elizabeth that came out in her Reign. Camden, Fuller, and several others speak of it at large.

For the Benefit of the Publick, and especially young Children; a Person of long Experience in the World, communicates this Observation of his for the common Good, Viz. that those Feather'd and Fur'd Hoods and Velvet Caps, with Peaks, that are commonly wore by Children, are very pernicious to them, heating the Brain, and causing Obstructions in the Head, and making the Child liable to take Cold; but my Advice is to wear as they did formerly, a plain colour'd Silk or Stuff Cap, to come over their Ears, and put them to Bed with the same; It will prevent those Distempers which are frequently occasion'd by the wearing of the first mention'd Caps.

By John Hill Apothecary, at the Black Swan in Watling-street near Friday-street London, are only to be sold and no where else, the true Original perpetual drawing Ointment and Plaister, being the first that was ever publish'd, which being apply'd to any convenient part of the Body, makes more plentiful discharges than Blisters, Issues, or Setons are observ'd to do, and with less trouble and pain, being daily recommended by the most eminent Physicians in the Cure of Distempers where Evacuation is required, having been experienced by great Numbers, in Distempers of the Head, Convulsions, Apoplexies, Megrims, Asthmaes, Rheumatisms, sore Eyes, Hecticks, &c. Price 2 s. 6 d. with Directions how any Person may manage it themselves, with sticking Plaisters deliver'd Gratis for its Use. Notice of which was given in the Gazette the 20th of September 1705.

☞ Beware of a sham Advertisement, publish'd in the English-Post, by Tho. Lyle Apothecary, who having bought one of the Author's drawing Plaisters and Ointment, as can be proved, did six Months after publish that he sold the true ones with a Quack Rodomontade of 40 Years Experience: pretending the same not to cause Inflammation nor scalding of Urine, &c. which is a notorious falsity; several Persons being ready to be produc'd, who have grievously complain'd of those Symptoms: Of which all Persons are desir'd to take Notice that they may not be impos'd on by a Pretender.

The Angelical Tincture for Coughs, &c. which overcomes the most grounded Coughs (tho' of 20 Years standing) in a Minute, and perfectly cures them in a few Days, as hath been fatally experienced by many Hundreds of Persons in both City and Country. 'Tis found to be a most sure Help for Coughs of all Sorts, whether moist or dry, Phthisical or Consumptive, Hoars, Choaking, Chinking, and Asthmatical Coughs, great Colds, and all other Diseases of the Breast and Lungs; restoring even those given over by Physitians, after tryal of the greatest Specificks, and approved Method of the most celebrated Authors. It is a Medicine which exceeds all Credit, and cannot be sufficiently commended, wherefore esteem it as a Jewel. Sold only at John's Coffee-House in Swithins Alley by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstans Church in Fleet-street. Price 2 s. a Bottle.

London Fucus for Shooes; being an unparallel'd Composition of the most pure and rich Blacks, choice Oils, &c. and is a thing so adapted to this Use, that the World never yet produc'd the like Invention, having gain'd a General Applause, causing the straitest Shooes to wear with delight and ease, beautifies them to admiration, preserves the Leather from cracking or rotting to the very last, and frees the Feet of all Pains, Corns, Swellings, &c. Sold only at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-Street, and at the Perfumers in the little Entry out of Castle Alley into the Royal Exchange. Price 12 d. a Roll. Note, one Roll serves one Person near half a Year.

LONDON: Printed, and Sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.